

Job Description

General Details

Job title:	Academic Practice Learning Manager (CAE19-01)
School/Department	School of Creative Arts and Engineering – Engineering Department
Normal Workbase:	Stoke Campus
Tenure:	Permanent
Hours/FTE:	Full Time / 1.0 FTE
Grade/Salary:	Grade 9
Date Prepared:	June 2019

Job Purpose

- To be responsible for the strategic development, co-ordination and quality assurance of all aspects of practice based learning, in particular placements within the School.
- To ensure that all practice based learning is of a high quality, is safe and meets all appropriate internal and external quality assurance standards and benchmarks.
- To be responsible for the strategic provision & development of new and existing practice based learning opportunities and activity including curriculum development, programme review and validation within the School.
- To manage and monitor complaints and issues of concern arising from or occurring within practice based learning and placements using relevant University policies and procedures.
- To take the strategic lead on any issues related to practice based learning and course accreditation by professional and industry bodies

Relationships

Reporting to:	Associate Dean - Students
Responsible for:

Main Activities

- To work alongside the Associate Dean (Students) and Head of Departments to ensure high quality and relevant practice based learning opportunities
- To provide strategic co-ordination and management within the School in relation to practice based learning across all departments
- To provide strategic co-ordination and management within the School in relation to maintaining and developing professional and industry accreditation as appropriate

- To undertake a leading role in the development of good practice (including QAA Quality Code mapping) in relation to practice based learning including good practice in relation to equality and diversity
- To proactively contribute to curriculum development, review and annual monitoring in relation to practice based learning
- To ensure that practice based learning developments and course accreditation are efficiently resourced
- To lead and manage the School's placements function including the proactive identification of placement opportunities
- To manage and cultivate the School's database of placement providers and placement students acting as the principle contact between the School and providers in business and industry
- To be responsible for the up to date and ongoing tracking/recording of student placement performance and, where relevant, to assess the students within placements
- To manage relationships between the School and placement providers during the period of placements, including the handling of complaints and student performance
- To advise on the appropriateness of placement opportunities in relation to specific students in conjunction with placement tutors
- To develop and maintain a knowledge of School sandwich courses and industry relevance to course content
- To prepare reports and data as required in respect of the placement and accreditation activities
- To represent the School in respect of placements at University level and to liaise closely with support functions in RBES
- To lead in the formulation and implementation of policies, practices and procedures within the School and particularly in respect of placements
- To participate in University wide activities as required through membership of committees, working groups etc.
- To undertake teaching, research and enterprise activities in your specialist area as appropriate
- Any other duties as may be reasonably required from time to time

Special Conditions

This post is exempted under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and as such, appointment will be subject to the University being satisfied with the outcome of an enhanced check of criminal records via the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). The successful applicant will be required to disclose all reprimands, warnings, cautions and convictions that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013. Certain spent reprimands, warnings, convictions and cautions are 'protected' and as such are not required to be disclosed. Any such protected offences cannot be taken into account, when making recruitment and suitability decisions.

To be committed to working with the University to further improve the carbon footprint/environmental issues.

Variation to Job Description

Staffordshire University reserves the right to vary the duties and responsibilities of its employees within the general conditions of the Scheme of pay and conditions and employment related matters. Thus it must be appreciated that the duties and responsibilities outlined above may be altered as the changing needs of the service may require.

Conditions of Service

The post is subject to such terms and conditions of employment as negotiated between the Board of Governors of the University and the recognised trade unions, and/or the employees of the University. In negotiating such terms and conditions the Board of Governors will consider any appropriate advice received from the Universities and Colleges Employers Association (UCEA).

Application Procedure

We encourage you to apply on-line at our website <http://jobs.staffs.ac.uk> as the system is user friendly and simple to complete.

We would ask all applicants to ensure that they have provided comprehensive information under each criteria in the Supporting Statements section of the application form and, if necessary, add any relevant additional information in the Additional Information Section.

Guidance for Disclosure Applicants

Please note that, if offered this position, the appointment procedure requires an Enhanced level of Disclosure with the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) (formerly CRB) as detailed above in the enclosed job description.

Enhanced Disclosures are for posts that involve a significant degree of contact with children or vulnerable adults. In general the type of work will involve regularly caring for, supervising, training or being in sole charge of such people.

A Disclosure is a document containing information held by the police and government departments. It can be used by employers to make safer recruitment decisions and is provided by the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS), an executive agency of the Home Office. Disclosures will provide details of a person's criminal record including relevant cautions, convictions, reprimands and warnings held on the Police National Computer (PNC). Depending on the level of Disclosure it might also contain information held by government departments and local police forces.

In applying for a Disclosure the successful applicant will be provided with the relevant form and guidance notes supplied by DBS. The form must be completed and returned to Human Resources & Organisational Development together with various original documents confirming identity (full details will be provided at the time). The successful applicant will be required to disclose all reprimands, warnings, cautions and convictions that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013. Certain spent reprimands, warnings, convictions and cautions are 'protected' and as such are not required to be disclosed. Any such protected offences cannot be taken into account, when making recruitment and suitability decisions.

The completed Disclosure application form will be countersigned and forwarded to the DBS by Human Resources & Organisational Development.

The DBS will then undertake the necessary checks with the Police and other relevant authorities.

After all checks have been carried out, the DBS will send the Disclosure directly to the applicant, which will list any details obtained from those checks. This Disclosure must be presented to Human Resources & Organisational Development to be scrutinised. In the event of the DBS check highlighting information held on any of the databases accessed, it may be necessary for a meeting to be convened with the successful applicant in order for an informed decision to be made as to whether or not this affects the offer of appointment. The final decision as to whether appointment can proceed will be made by the Director of Human Resources.

Policy Statement on the Recruitment and Employment of Ex-Offenders

Background

The first priority of Staffordshire University is the safety and welfare of children and vulnerable adults in our care, who use the services of the University or come into contact with members of the University. We intend to achieve this by exercising rigour and vigilance in employment-making; criminal record Disclosures are central to this.

Recipients of criminal record Disclosures must duly comply with the DBS Code of Practice as well as the University's policies and procedures. Disclosure information will be treated as sensitive personal data; recipients will follow the University's data protection and criminal record checking procedure when handling Disclosure information. The University will treat all applicants fairly judging people's criminal records on merit, in accordance with the law and in relation to the responsibilities of the post in question. The University will not subject anyone who discloses a criminal record to unfair treatment on the basis of convictions, subject to relevant legislation and reasonable judgement.

Policy Statement

- As an organisation using the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) Disclosure service to assess applicants' suitability for positions of trust, Staffordshire University complies fully with the DBS Code of Practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly. It undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a Disclosure on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed
- Staffordshire University is committed to the fair treatment of its staff, potential staff or users of its services, regardless of gender, race, nationality, religion or belief, disability, age, sexual orientation or trades union activity or offending background
- We have a written policy on the employment of ex-offenders which is available on the University's website
- We actively promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records. We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience
- A Disclosure is only requested after a thorough risk assessment has indicated that one is both proportionate and relevant to the position concerned. For those positions where a Disclosure is required, all job advertisements and job descriptions will contain a statement that a disclosure will be requested in the event of the individual being offered the position
- Where a Disclosure is to form part of the recruitment process, we encourage all applicants called for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process. We request that this information is sent under separate, confidential cover, to Human Resources & Organisational Development at Staffordshire University, and we guarantee that this information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process
- Disclosure is required for all reprimands, warnings, cautions and convictions that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013. Certain spent reprimands, warnings, convictions and cautions are 'protected' and as such are not required to be disclosed. Any such protected offences cannot be taken into account, when making recruitment and suitability decisions
- We ensure that those at Staffordshire University who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of the offences. We also ensure that they have received appropriate training and guidance in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders

- At interview, or in a separate discussion, we ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to a withdrawal of an offer of employment
- We make every subject of a DBS Disclosure aware of the existence of the DBS Code of Practice and make a copy available on request
- We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment

Having a criminal record is not necessarily a bar to working with us; this will depend on the nature of the position, the circumstances and background of offences.