Normal Workbase	Stafford Campus (with requirement to work across all sites * please see Special Conditions )
Tenure	Permanent
Grade/Salary	Grade 7/8 (dependent on experience)
FTE	Part-Time, 0.5fte

Job Purpose

- To play a leading role in the development and delivery of the School's Human Factors and Ergonomics (HFE) provision across all undergraduate health and social care courses and to be part of the delivery team of the MSc in Human Factors launching in September 2020.
- To be part of the team designing and developing a School wide strategy for the embedding of HFE across the curricula.
- To contribute to University led and/or School initiatives and developments in line with strategic business development plans
- To participate in research, knowledge exchange and public engagement to enhance the reputation of the University

Relationships

Reporting to: Associate Dean

Main Activities

- To teach and assess students in the areas of knowledge appropriate to the aims of the provisions within the School and where appropriate, across other Schools of the University.
- To be responsible for the development, design, delivery and leadership of modules at various levels, including assessments methods, ensuring that the learning materials and methods of delivery meet defined learning objectives.
- To support Head of Department in the effective day to day operation of the allocated academic area.
- To undertake leadership responsibilities such as leading the development of academic colleagues to enable integration of HFE in all aspects of the health and social care undergraduate and post-graduate programmes.
- Working with, and leading colleagues as appropriate, in order to ensure the integration of all aspects of all HFE.

- To make an important contribution to curriculum development and new award development, leading where required, embedding HFE learning where opportunities arise.
- To take on responsibilities (leading small projects where appropriate), in relation to University led and/or School strategic initiatives including areas such as commercial income generation activity; student recruitment and retention; partnership development; development of flexible and work-based learning provision; development of widening participation activities.
- To play a key role in representing the School in student recruitment and retention activities including participation in Open Days throughout the year.
- To exercise a high standard of advanced scholarship activity both personally and as a member of a team, working with colleagues to develop an inclusive, team-oriented approach to such activities.
- To work towards income generation related to knowledge exchange.
- To undertake appropriate professional development and mandatory training as identified or required (See Professional Development section).
- To act as a mentor to colleagues and to support the development of less experienced colleagues as appropriate. Providing training and development to colleagues at all levels to ensure the simulation-based education strategy can be delivered by all relevant colleagues.
- To enhance the quality of teaching provision and programme development, drawing on leading practices from the HE and other sectors - specifically in the area of HFE.
- To maintain and develop areas of expertise in appropriate ways under the general guidance and oversight of the Head of Department/Associate Dean.
- To lead on raising the School and the University's profile nationally (and internationally) and reputation in this area of expertise both internally and externally.
- To participate in University activities as required through membership of committees, working groups etc., as required.
- To enhance the School's ability to engage with industrial and external partner contacts through external networks to build relationships for future activities.
- To support and participate in the development of a strong research profile for the discipline through personal research or support for research active individuals.
- To undertake both general Health & Safety responsibilities in accordance with the University's Health & Safety Policy and in addition, to provide such supervision as is necessary to ensure the health and safety of both Postgraduate and Undergraduate students.
- To undertake any other duties and responsibilities as may reasonably be required from time to time by the Head of Department or Dean of School.

The above represents the range of generic activities, which could typically be expected of a Senior Lecturer in the University which is neither prescriptive nor exhaustive. Each individual post will have a particular emphasis with specific allocated responsibilities (see summary below) although these may of course change and develop according to the varying needs of the School and subject area and also, the developing experience and skills of the individual: -

- To lead and be responsible for the design, implementation and ongoing delivery of the School's strategy for HFE.

- Development of academic and technical team colleagues such that they can independently deliver high quality inter-professional and inter-disciplinary HFE learning.
- To contribute to curriculum design and approval across all health and social care programmes to ensure inclusion of HFE content.
- To lead on pursuing the School mission to create the safest health and social care graduates through means of HFE education.
- To work with external stakeholders to build the reputation of Staffordshire University towards being the national leaders for driving improvements in patient safety.

Special Conditions

This post is exempted under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and as such, appointment will be subject to the University being satisfied with the outcome of an enhanced check of criminal records via the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). The successful applicant will be required to disclose all reprimands, warnings, cautions and convictions that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013. Certain spent reprimands, warnings, convictions and cautions are 'protected' and as such are not required to be disclosed. Any such protected offences cannot be taken into account, when making recruitment and suitability decisions.

Whilst the role holder will be based at The Centre of Excellence in Healthcare Education, Blackheath Lane Campus, Stafford Campus, travel to the University Shrewsbury and Stoke Campus is also expected.

The postholder will be required to travel and represent the University in the UK and Overseas as required.

There will be a need for the postholder to work occasional weekends to cover marketing and recruitment activities.

There will be a need for flexible working practices by the role-holder to support different forms of delivery such as distance and accelerated learning. In addition, the role holder may be required to undertake their role off site which may include overnight stays in either the UK or abroad.

External Activities

External activities for example membership of professional bodies, external examiner roles and journal editorial work which enhance the work of the post holder are encouraged within the overall provisions of the exclusivity of the service arrangements to which the post holder is subject. Additionally, the Institution expects employees to take a cross University role e.g., through membership of Committees and Working Parties.

Professional Development

The University is keen to support staff in achieving high standards of pedagogy in order to facilitate effective student learning. All newly appointed full-time and fractional contracted members of academic staff who have less than three years teaching experience and do not have the equivalent qualification from another University, are required to undertake and complete the most appropriate route from either the Academic Professional Apprenticeship (APA), Post Graduate Certificate in Higher and Professional Education (PgCHPE) or Post Graduate Diploma in Professional Education in Healthcare (PgDPEH). This must be commenced within 24 months of appointment as a condition of their employment with Staffordshire University. If you are shortlisted, the chair of the interview panel will explain this further.

All members of academic staff will be expected to achieve Fellowship of the HEA within an agreed timescale after commencement.

Research and Scholarly Activity

The duties of lecturing posts include participation in appropriate research and scholarly activity indicated in the research policy of the University. The extent of involvement in research and scholarly activity may vary with the balance between teaching, administration and research appropriate to particular posts. This will be determined by your Dean of School in consultation with you and will be reviewed regularly through the staff appraisal system. While it is in the nature of research and scholarly activity that it will often take place throughout the year and be integrated into the overall pattern of activities, it is envisaged that the periods of the year outside normal teaching weeks and the holiday entitlement will primarily be devoted to research and scholarly activity.

Where new staff can demonstrate a strong research background and a profile, which indicates potential to achieve research excellence consideration will be given to allocation of appropriate protected research time during the normal workload allocation cycle.

Variation to Job Description

Staffordshire University reserves the right to vary the duties and responsibilities of its employees within the general conditions of the Scheme of pay and conditions and employment related matters. Thus, it must be appreciated that the duties and responsibilities outlined above may be altered as the changing needs of the service may require.

Conditions of Service

The post is subject to such terms and conditions of employment as negotiated between the Board of Governors of the University and the recognised trade unions, and/or the employees of the University. In negotiating such terms and conditions the Board of Governors will consider any appropriate advice received from the Universities and Colleges Employers Association (UCEA).

Informal Discussion

Should you wish to discuss this vacancy informally before making an application please contact:

Mike Phillips, Email: Mike.Phillips@staffs.ac.uk Tel: 01785 353694

Application Procedure

We encourage you to apply on-line at our website <http://jobs.staffs.ac.uk> as the system is user friendly and simple to complete.

We would ask all applicants to ensure that they have provided comprehensive information under each criteria in the Supporting Statements section of the application form and, if necessary, add any relevant additional information in the Additional Information Section.

Guidance for Disclosure Applicants

Please note that, if offered this position, the appointment procedure requires an Enhanced level of Disclosure with the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) (formerly CRB) as detailed above in the enclosed job description.

Enhanced Disclosures are for posts that involve a significant degree of contact with children or vulnerable adults. In general, the type of work will involve regularly caring for, supervising, training or being in sole charge of such people.

A Disclosure is a document containing information held by the police and government departments. It can be used by employers to make safer recruitment decisions and is provided by the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS), an executive agency of the Home Office. Disclosures will provide details of a person's criminal record including relevant cautions, convictions, reprimands and warnings held on the Police National Computer (PNC). Depending on the level of Disclosure it might also contain information held by government departments and local police forces.

In applying for a Disclosure, the successful applicant will be provided with the relevant form and guidance notes supplied by DBS. The form must be completed and returned to Human Resources & Organisational Development together with various original documents confirming identity (full details will be provided at the time). The successful applicant will be required to disclose all reprimands, warnings, cautions and convictions that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013. Certain spent reprimands, warnings, convictions and cautions are 'protected' and as such are not required to be disclosed. Any such protected offences cannot be taken into account, when making recruitment and suitability decisions.

The completed Disclosure application form will be countersigned and forwarded to the DBS by Human Resources & Organisational Development.

The DBS will then undertake the necessary checks with the Police and other relevant authorities.

After all checks have been carried out, the DBS will send the Disclosure directly to the applicant, which will list any details obtained from those checks. This Disclosure must be presented to Human Resources & Organisational Development to be scrutinised. In the event of the DBS check highlighting information held on any of the databases accessed, it may be necessary for a meeting to be convened with the successful applicant in order for an informed decision to be made as to whether or not this affects the offer of appointment. The final decision as to whether appointment can proceed will be made by the Director of Human Resources.

Policy Statement on the Recruitment and Employment of Ex-Offenders

Background

The first priority of Staffordshire University is the safety and welfare of children and vulnerable adults in our care, who use the services of the University or come into contact with members of the University. We intend to achieve this by exercising rigour and vigilance in employment-making; criminal record Disclosures are central to this.

Recipients of criminal record Disclosures must duly comply with the DBS Code of Practice as well as the University's policies and procedures. Disclosure information will be treated as sensitive personal data; recipients will follow the University's data protection and criminal record checking procedure when handling Disclosure information. The University will treat all applicants fairly judging people's criminal records on merit, in accordance with the law and in relation to the responsibilities of the post in question. The University will not subject anyone who discloses a criminal record to unfair treatment on the basis of convictions, subject to relevant legislation and reasonable judgement.

Policy Statement

- As an organisation using the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) Disclosure service to assess applicants' suitability for positions of trust, Staffordshire University complies fully with the DBS Code of Practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly. It undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a Disclosure on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed
- Staffordshire University is committed to the fair treatment of its staff, potential staff or users of its services, regardless of gender, race, nationality, religion or belief, disability, age, sexual orientation or trades union activity or offending background
- We have a written policy on the employment of ex-offenders which is available on the University's website
- We actively promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records. We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience
- A Disclosure is only requested after a thorough risk assessment has indicated that one is both proportionate and relevant to the position concerned. For those positions where a Disclosure is required, all job advertisements and job descriptions will contain a statement that a disclosure will be requested in the event of the individual being offered the position
- Where a Disclosure is to form part of the recruitment process, we encourage all applicants called for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process. We request that this information is sent under separate, confidential cover, to Human Resources & Organisational Development at Staffordshire University, and we guarantee that this information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process
- Disclosure is required for all reprimands, warnings, cautions and convictions that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013. Certain spent reprimands, warnings, convictions and cautions are 'protected' and as such are not required to be disclosed. Any such protected offences cannot be taken into account, when making recruitment and suitability decisions

- We ensure that those at Staffordshire University who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of the offences. We also ensure that they have received appropriate training and guidance in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders
- At interview, or in a separate discussion, we ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to a withdrawal of an offer of employment
- We make every subject of a DBS Disclosure aware of the existence of the DBS Code of Practice and make a copy available on request
- We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment

Having a criminal record is not necessarily a bar to working with us; this will depend on the nature of the position, the circumstances and background of offences.
