

Job Description

Job Title	Lecturer in English Language (TESOL)
School/Service/Institute	International Recruitment and Development (Student Recruitment, Admissions and Partnerships)
Normal Workbase:	Stoke
Tenure	Permanent
Grade/Salary	Grade 7
FTE/Hours	0.5 FTE

Job Purpose

- To support the development and delivery of the academic English Language provision to undergraduate, postgraduate and visiting students, as required, ensuring an excellent student experience
- To undertake teaching and teaching-related activities (including pastoral support) as determined by the Senior Lecturer (English Language) / Director of International Recruitment and Development
- To participate in research, knowledge exchange, public engagement and/or scholarly activity for personal development and to enhance the reputation of the University
- To lead/contribute to University and Department initiatives in line with the strategic business plan

Relationships

Reporting to:	Senior Lecturer (English Language)
Responsible for:	None
Key working relationships:	Academic Schools, Student Development Services, International Admissions, International Partnerships

Main Activities

- To teach and assess, as part of a teaching team, English Language to support in-session and pre-session provision for International Students. This includes Undergraduate, Postgraduate, and visiting students (e.g. Summer Schools, credit and non-credit bearing exchange students).
- To assess international applicants' English Language capability in relation to the CEFR framework for admission to programmes at the University.

- To contribute to the development of specialist teaching and learning provision, including short courses, in the subject specialism and associated disciplines.
- To devise and deliver modules as determined by the Senior Lecturer (English Language) and to ensure that learning materials and methods of delivery meet defined learning objectives.
- To enhance the quality of teaching provision and programme development, drawing on leading practices from the HE and other sectors, and building e-learning into the delivery of teaching to students as appropriate.
- To ensure high quality learning experiences in line with the University's approach to blended learning and to participate with other staff in the development of teaching, learning and assessment strategies.
- To contribute to student support in administrative and pastoral roles, including advice to students on resits and to provide post-results counselling.
- To attend and contribute to School meetings, project teams and working groups in line with strategic initiatives as required
- To contribute to the subject's activities and reputation both internally and externally
- To exercise a high standard of advanced scholarship activity both personally and as a member of a team, working with colleagues to develop an inclusive, team-orientated approach to such activities.
- To enhance the department's ability to engage with industrial and external partner contacts through effective networking to build relationships for future activities.
- To pursue enterprise and research activities which enhance the external revenue of the International Recruitment and Development team and to deliver various forms of income generating activity (e.g. Summer Schools) and other services as determined by the Head of International Partnerships / Director of International Recruitment and Development.
- To support and participate in the development of a strong research profile (where appropriate) for the discipline through personal research or support for research active individuals.
- To undertake both general Health & Safety responsibilities in accordance with the University's Health & Safety Policy and in addition, to provide such supervision as is necessary to ensure the health and safety of all students.
- To undertake appropriate professional development and mandatory training activities as identified or required (See Professional Development section).
- To undertake other such responsibilities as may reasonably be required by the Senior Lecturer (English Language), Head of International Partnerships and/or Director of International Recruitment and Development.
- The role holder is required to minimise environmental impact in the performance of their role and to actively contribute to the delivery of the University's Environmental Sustainability Policy

Specific responsibilities of a Lecturer:

- To undertake operational responsibilities associated with the delivery of academic provision, including the leadership of modules/small courses, as directed by the Senior Lecturer (English Language) / Director of International Recruitment and Development.

The above represents the range of activities, which could typically be expected of an academic member of staff in the University, which is neither prescriptive nor exhaustive.

Special Conditions

The postholder will be required to travel and represent the University in the UK and Overseas as required.

There will be a need for the postholder to work occasional weekends to cover marketing and recruitment activities.

There will be a need for flexible working practices by the postholder to support different forms of delivery such as distance and accelerated learning. In addition, the postholder may be required to undertake their role off site, which may include overnight stays either in the UK or abroad.

External Activities

External activities for example membership of professional bodies, external examiner roles and journal editorial work which enhance the work of the post holder are encouraged within the overall provisions of the exclusivity of the service arrangements to which the post holder is subject. Additionally, the Institution expects employees to take a cross University role e.g., through membership of Committees and Working Parties.

Professional Development

The University will support and encourage the postholder to engage in continuous professional development activities through the YOURCareer@Staffs framework. This framework supports postholders to identify appropriate development opportunities. Continuing Professional Development (CPD) activity will be recognised by a bi-annual Performance and Development Review (PDR) discussion.

Academic Roles

The University is keen to support staff in achieving high standards of pedagogy in order to facilitate effective student learning. All newly appointed full-time and fractional contracted members of academic staff who have less than two years teaching experience and do not have the equivalent qualification from another University, are required to undertake and complete the most appropriate route from either the Academic Professional Apprenticeship (APA), Post Graduate Certificate in Higher and Professional Education (PgCHPE) or Post Graduate Diploma in Professional Education in Healthcare (PgDPEH). This must be commenced within 24 months of appointment as a condition of their employment with Staffordshire University. If you are shortlisted, the chair of the interview panel will explain this further.

All members of academic staff will be expected to achieve Fellowship of the HEA within an agreed timescale after commencement.

Research and Scholarly Activity

The duties of lecturing posts include participation in appropriate research and scholarly activity indicated in the research policy of the University. The extent of involvement in research and scholarly activity may vary with the balance between teaching, administration and research appropriate to particular posts. This will be determined by your Dean of School, in consultation with you, and will be reviewed regularly through the staff appraisal system. While research and scholarly activity will often take place throughout the year and be integrated into the overall pattern of activities, it is envisaged that the periods of the year outside normal teaching weeks and the holiday entitlement will primarily be devoted to research and scholarly activity.

Where new staff can demonstrate a strong research background and a profile, which indicates potential to achieve research excellence consideration will be given to allocation of appropriate protected research time during the normal workload allocation cycle.

Variation to Job Description

The University reserves the right to vary the duties and responsibilities of its employees within the general conditions of the Scheme of pay and conditions and employment related matters. Thus, it must be appreciated that the duties and responsibilities outlined above may be altered as the changing needs of the service may require.

Conditions of Service

The postholder will be employed by Staffordshire University Services Limited.

Staffordshire University Services Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary company of Staffordshire University which recruits and provides both academic and professional support staff to the University. You will be subject to Staffordshire University's policies and procedures and will be eligible to participate in the Staffordshire University Pension Scheme.

Application Procedure

We encourage applicants to apply on-line at our website <http://jobs.staffs.ac.uk> as the system is user friendly and simple to complete.

We ask that all applicants ensure that they have provided comprehensive information under each criterion in the Supporting Statements section of the application form and, if necessary, add any relevant additional information in the Additional Information Section.

The University will use anonymous application forms for this role; however, we recognise that applicants may want to include additional information demonstrating their research or publications. If you choose to upload any supporting documents that contain identifiable data, your application will no longer be considered anonymous.